DEPUTIES' MEETING

Wednesday, 1 April 1953

	Mr. Dulles:
25X1
25X1	The Director stated that this was a political problem and he felt we should stay out altogether. However, if it was decided that it was U.S. Government policy to take sides in this problem, CIA should be prepared with an appropriate plan to support such action. After some further discussion, the Director
25X1	undertook to call

b. Reported that fragmentary intelligence received and some speculation led him to believe that the communists might possibly propose a peaceful unification of Indo China. The Director stated if and when it was possible to base this on some fact, a memorandum should be prepared for in order that he might bring it to the attention of the President.
